BRITANNICUM
LADY BANKS.

To the Honourable

EDWARD Lord HARLEY,

Only Son and Heir apparent of the Right Honourable Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, Baron Harley of Wigmore, Lord High-Treasurer of Great Britain, and One of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

My LORD,

HEraldry and Antiquity may be typically expressed by the Palm-Trees, which thrive not single; or by the Twin-Sisters, History and Chronology, the one being insignificant without the other. Your growing Knowledge in them both, require a more adæquate Oblation: Yet your Affection to both will, I hope, pardon my Presumption. And al-

altho' this is but a minute Blaze, you will nevertheleſs vouchſafe a Condeſcention thereunto, and pleaſe to accept the ſame. Your Mind, your Condition, and the Subject it ſelf, are Congenial; and this happy Triplicity it is, which hath influenced the preſent Dedication: Not that I believe you can receive much Improvement hereby, who are Maſter of that great Magazine of Hiſtory and Antiquities, preſerved in my Lord Treaſurer's Library. But that the Collector may have the Honour of your Patronage, which will infallibly ſkreen him from all Picque and Cenſure. I have Faith in your Will and Power, and therefore with Confidence do ſubſcribe my ſelf,

My LORD,

Your Honour's moſt Humble,

Obedient, and Devoted Servant,

SIMON SEGAR.

THE Introduction.

NATURAM expellas——— My Inclination to this Study in every Dependency, has been more prevalent than beneficial; nay, rather disadvantageous to the Course of my Education, more than once or twice interrupted by Heraldry, with a greater Delight and Incumbency; a Province that is anothers by Art and Acquisition, but mine (I may appropriate) by Nature and Birthright, who am the fourth Generation in this Way of Learning. How I have accomplish'd this Task, is not for me to judge, who am the Parent of the Brat, therefore apt to be fond. Yet as little as it seems, it cost me no little Labour in its Production. —— I could wiſh the Barons by Tenure, and the Remainder by Summons, were as regularly done; and it may be hereafter, according to the Succeſs this encounters. —— The due marſhalling them in Precedency was what Dugdale himſelf acknowledges difficult, if not impoſſible, and craves Pardon in his Preface to his Baronage. —— And in his Catalogue of Summons to Parliaments, we find Changes, ſometimes one, ſometimes another Baron has Preference in a different Order; but leſs mutable by Degrees, yet not altogether ſo ſettled, till long after the Reign of King Richard II. —— I ſhall not therefore otherwiſe than with him, apologize for Defects, only affirm, I have try'd my utmoſt Skill in it towards a Perfection, and preſume for a candid Cenſure from ingenious Diſpoſitions, my ſelf being ready to be better inform'd, and retract Miſtakes.

The Uſe of Catalogues eaſily appear by the Sale of Things of this Contexture, that there is no Room to gloſs and expatiate. —— In ſhort, we extreamly want a new and im-improv'd Baronage upon the Foundation and Stock of Dugdale.---That what is lately publiſh'd under the Title, The Peerage of England: The firſt Part cannot be an Appendix (was it free from Errors) is viſible by this; and the Second is only an Abridgment in a Manner. ——— I have prepar'd for ſuch an Enterprize: But doubting any ſingle Performance, exhibit this as a Motive for Maſters of better Ability and recompenſable Leiſure. Parturire montem. —— And it is born for the View and Satisfaction of thoſe chiefly concerned, who have leſs Hours for Imployment herein. —— I ſhall now addreſs my ſelf to the Matter and Method, and be as ſhort as poſſible.

Not to enter upon Etymologies and Definitions, a Baron comprehends all the ſuperiour Claſſes, Dukes, Marquiſſes, Earls, and Vicounts, and they are ſuch, although not ſpecified, anciently the greater Title including the leſs; or, becauſe the Title of Baron in its Infancy was not ſo purely honorary as at preſent. Moreton Earl of Cornwal, had his Barony of Pe- venſy; The Warrens Earls of Surry and Suſſex, their Baronies of Rygate and Lewes; Vere Earl of Oxon, his Barony of Kenſington; Mohun Earl of Dorſet, his of Dunſter, and Marſhal Earl of Pembroke, his of Strigul, now Chepſtow; thence, becauſe reſiding there, ſometimes call'd Earl of Strigul. Some of them had their Baronies couch'd in their higher Titles. The Houſe of Britanny, Earls of Richmond, were Barons of that Place; Clare Earl of Clare, Baron of Clare and Tunbridge; Bellomont Earl of Bedford, Baron of that Place; and the Houſe of Montgomery, Earl of Shrewsbury and Arundel (or Suſſex) had their Baronies of the ſame Name; Shrewsbury and Arundel, the laſt of which coming to the Family of Albini: The Earldom of that Place proceeded more from ſeizing of the Caſtle of Arundel, or Barony, than late Creations or Reſtitutions; for although the Title had a Beginning from Maud the Empreſs, to William de Albineto, to whom her Son gave the Rape of Arundel, tenendum de eo per ſervitium 84 militum & dimid. and that Richard I. granted to William, Son to the firſt William, the Caſtle of

Arun-

Arundel, cum toto honore de Arundel, & tertium denarium de placitis de Suſſex unde Comes eſt. —— Yet, as it ſeems, it being his Inheritance before, deſcended from his Mother, in Parliament, in the Time of the Fitz-Alans, it was adjudg'd 11 Henry VI. the Earl ſhould have Place as Poſſeſſor of that Caſtle, without any other Reſpect. And doubtleſs 'twas with Regard to the Barony. And hence, I preſume, a younger Houſe (ſo a while) of the Fitz-Alans, Baron Maltravers in Right of his Wife was affected in Imitation of the Barons by Tenure, that in his Summons 1 Richard II. he is Arundel (not Fitz-Alan) Baron Maltravers.

Of later Days, after the Reign of King Edward I. the Baronies began to be mentioned, Beauchamp Earl of Warwick, was Baron Beauchamp, Elmley and Hanſlap his ancient Baronies; Mortimer Earl of March. was Baron Mortimer, Wigmore his ancient Barony; Holland Earl of Kent was Baron Wake of Lidel by Deſcent.

The Cuſtom of making a Peer of a ſuperiour Degree a Baron of ſome Place began about King Henry VIII's Time, and has been followed with a few few Exceptions, and that eſpecially where the Creations were in Women and for Life. The moſt remarkable infringing the Practice, is that of the Vicounteſs Maidſtone, afterwards Counteſs of Winchelſea, temp. Jac. I. where the Remainders of thoſe Honours were to her Male Poſterity; who, tho' ſo entituled, had no nominal Barony till the Patent of Baron Fitzherbert was obtain'd temp. Car. II.

Of Barons there were Three ſorts: 1. Capital, holding of the King in Capite; 2. Meſne, holding by Meſnalty of the other, both Parliamentary, if poſſeſſed of Thirteen Knights Fees and a third Part; And 3. Lords of Mannors, but not of ſo large Poſſeſſion and Revenues, ſuch as may be anciently every Lord of a Mannor, whence the Title of Court-Baron; and with whom we have nothing to do here.

Of theſe Baronies in chief, King Henry III. in his Devotions at St. Albans, reckon'd Two Hundred and Fifty, "Nominavit, ſaith Matth. Paris, Dominus Rex & numeravit omnes Angliæ quarum ei occurrit memoria Baronias inveniq; ducentas & quinquaginta.

As

As Parliamentary Barons, they are diſtinguiſh'd alſo into Three Kinds; 1. By Tenure; 2. By Writ of Summons to Parliament; And 3. by Patent.

1. Till the 49th of Henry III. Baronies were all by Tenure, and the local Names of the Baronies were as the Titles of Honour; for they held per Baroniam by their Poſſeſſion; inſomuch that in ſome, the Places conferred the Sirname. The Houſe of Nevil, the Saxon Deſcendants of Fitz-Maldred, and afterwards called Nevill, from an Heir-Female of Norman Race with whom they intermarried, were Barons Raby of Raby Caſtle; Stafford firſt in Stafford, then in Bagot, who married likewiſe with the Heir-Female, and procured the Sirname of Stafford to his principal Progeny, both were Barons Stafford of Stafford-Caſtle. The Houſe of Berkley [de Durſeley] and Berkley, lineal Deſcendants of Fitz-Harding, of the Blood Royal of Denmark, who married a Daughter of the Berkleys [de Durſeley] whence that Name, both were Barons Berkley of Berkley-Caſtle. Vipont Baron Weſtmorland of Weſtmorland and Caſtellan of Appleby-Caſtle. Bertram Baron Bo-

Bothal of Bothal Lacy. Baron Pontefract of Pontefract. Someri Baron Dudley of Dudley, &c. Let the Appellative Diſcrimination of Raby Caſtle, Stafford Caſtle, &c. be omitted as needleſs, it was expreſſed or underſtood in the Title it ſelf. And as for Caſtles, ſuch their Manſions were which were the Heads of their Baronies, adequate to their Grandeur and Convenience, and fortified with Motes, &c. according to the Humour and Circumſtances of the Age. A Thing not permitted after the Summoning of Barons commenced, unleſs by Licence; and ſo we often find, after Henry III. Grants to peculiar Favourites. Crenellare (the old Word Kernellare) domum to imbattle, i. e. to caſtellate. For theſe Structures were eſteemed, before the dilated Invention of Gun-powder, of ſufficient Defence. And the too frequent Practice thereof, without Reſtraint, might occaſion again, through Supinity, like Troubles as were the Barons Wars, which harraſſed the Kingdom, and in a Manner overturned the Nature of theſe Baronies by Tenure, generally altering tering their Conſtitution, and as it were their Titles.

Some indeed remained; As at this Day the Eccleſiaſtick Baronies of our Biſhops; and the Temporal, the Barony of Arundel, included in the Earldom; And thoſe more properly to be termed Feudal Honours; becauſe the Tenure is not regarded with exactneſs of Point. For Inſtance Bergavenny, a Barony by Tenure, in the Families or Houſes of Baalun, Fitz-Count, Braoſe Baron of Brember Caſtle, Earls of Hereford and Cantelupe, all before the Death of King Henry III. it remained afterwards a Barony, denominating as heretofore, in Haſtings, Beauchamp, and Nevill; And the Heir Female of the laſt being married to Fane, in her Right he conteſted for that Barony and Title as by Tenure. However, 22 Jac. I. to pleaſe and pacifie both Candidates, the King continued the Title in Nevill, a collateral, but chief Heir Male of the deceaſed Baron Bergavenny, and created Fane Baron Burghurſt and Earl of Weſtmorland. And can we call now Bergavenny the Barony of Nevill, a Barony by Tenure, without the Poſſeſſion? When Berkley Caſtle was in the Crown, in ſtrictneſs of Idiom, where was the Barony by Tenure, to Berkley Baron Berkley temp. Hen. VIII? And when Sutton Baron Dudley, of Dudley Caſtle, by Tenure, was chouſed of that part of his Inheritance by the Earl of Northumberland, temp. Eliz. where was the Barony by Tenure? Why has Lord of Heleigh been formerly inſerted among the Titles of the Barons Wharton? It was with an Eye that way, and to countenance Heleigh, as a Barony by Tenure, and ſo it was. Tho' ſince Henry III. in Audley, viz. temp. Edw. I. and afterwards by Deſcent in Touchet, as Heir General, under the Title of Baron Audley (of Heleigh) in reference to which, and of altering the Titles in the next Head under the ſecond ſort of Barons, viz. Barons by Writ of Summons.

The old Baronies by Tenure, that did not remain ſuch, or are now conſtrued not to remain as ſuch, give the Titles of Lord to their Poſſeſſors, as Lord of the Honours of Petworth and Cockermouth, to the Duke of Somerſet; they being anciently, to wit, before Edward I. Titles themſelves in

Percy

Percy and Lucy, who were afterwards Barons Percy and Lucy; and the Poſſeſſions retain the Name of Honours in ſome Parts to this Day, as the Honours of Pontefract and Haſting, anciently the Titles and Baronies of Lacey and D'auco or Ewe.

The old Barony of Dilſton, in the North, poſſeſſed by a Junior Vaux, and his Barony, temp. Will. II. is of the ſame Stamp; and the Ratcliffs, now Lords of that Honour, tho' by Corruption commonly call'd Barons of Dilſton, till that Title ſunk in the real Title of Baron Ratcliff of Tindale and Earl of Derwentwater. What ſhall I ſay of Hilton-Caſtle, conceding it a Barony by Tenure, whoſe Lord was ſummoned, temp. Edward I. as Baron Hilton of Hilton, and that but for a while, and not Hereditary; But that inſtead of Lord of the Honour of Hilton, the preſent Poſſeſſor thereof is but, through a like Impropriety of Speech, called Baron of Hilton.

2. In the 49*th* of Hen. III. is the oldeſt Summons of Parliament upon Record. There were Statutes and Parliaments of elder Times, witneſs the grand Charter 17 Joh. and that of Merton 20 Hen. III. To omit the Saxons, Witteneagmots or Michel Synods, (foreign here) and the Parliaments held in Hen. I. and II. whereof our Hiſtorians. And to theſe Parliaments, ſo many Barons as would, (underſtand here all the greater Nobility) after Notice of the King's Purpoſe, came, and ſat with him: But in that Year, Monfort the Catilinary Earl of Leiceſter and Baron of Hinkley, in the King's counterfeited Name, having convocated an Aſſembly of the Rebel-Barons and others of his Side, and proved dangerous to the Crown. From his Example afterwards, as Honey out of Poyſon, the wiſe King Edward I. conſulted none upon the weighty Affairs of the Nation, except whom he had aſſembled in Parliament by a Writ of Summons directed to them, and ſuch in whom he could confide: And thus he cut off the antique and ſpontaneous Acceſs of the Barons to thoſe grand Councils, diſfranchiſed many of the old, who had been His and his Father's Enemies, and intitled His and his Father's Friends, de Novo, or made

new Barons. Ferrers Earl of Derby loſt his Barony of Tutbury; Sackvile (a Progenitor of the Earls of Dorſet) his, &c. Others puniſhed by confiſcating their Eſtates, or pecuniary Mulcts, to their utter Ruine.

In theſe new Parliamentary Barons, a Tenure per Baroniam was reſpected. And perhaps till the Form of Creating by Patent came in Faſhion, none were (or very few) call'd to Parliament, but ſuch as held per Baroniam, or en Baronie, yet was it not hereditary, but perſonal, & animento denuò Rege. The Father was ſummoned, and the Son and Heir ſometimes not. One and no more in the lineal Deſcent of a Family, or more in the ſame Family, but collateral; then again in Relation to Time, more or leſs often; that is, in one, two, or three Parliaments, or during the Series of a whole Reign, or more, that, I believe, it introduced the Word Temporal, as uſed in Epithite to our Lay Barons.

But in Proceſs of Years, Honours growing leſs officiary, after their Aids in the Wars of King Edward III. and more in Reward of Merit or Favour, vour, a Patent for a Barony came in Uſe, to make Amends for the paſt Services, and Expence of a faithful Subject, and ſupplied the Defects of a Barony by Tenure, which were continually ſwallowed up in greater Titles, and eclipſed by its own Scarcity. Beſides, the primitive End of theſe Tenures, clip'd by Montfort's Rebellion, began more to be impaired, and leſs conſidered, by Reaſon of the Hoſtility in the approaching Civil Wars, and the Neceſſity of State to reward and procure Partiſans and Clients of their Cauſe.

And this Barony being uſually Hereditary to them and their Heirs Males, (Baronies being in its Original unfit for the weaker Sex) or with Limitations at the Pleaſure and Will of the Sovereign; The Baronies by Summons became likewiſe ſo through Cuſtom, and rivited by an inſenſible Sympathy. And for their Prerogative of Geniture; Heirs Male and Female, and their Deſcendants, claim them upon the rational Support, or real Ground of their being firſt ſummoned en Baronie. Wherefore the Titles in ſuch original Summons, mons, are ſtill preſerved by their Poſterity; Nay, often the Heirs Male in a collateral Line have been advanced thereby.

I ſhall only mention here one Example for both. It is the Caſe of Fines and Dacre: Fines of Herſtmonceux having taken to Wife the Heir of Dacre Baron Dacre of Dacre, enjoyed the Title of Baron Dacre by Deſcent, temp. Hen. VI. originally by Writ of Summons in Dacre, 14. Edward II. or by Barony, 28 Edward I. and Fines was adjudged and declared ſo by Patent 37 Hen. VI. But concerning this a long Diſpute happen'd, which was finally concluded in Content of both. Fines preſerved his Title, and Dacre his Opponent, then the chief Heir Male of that Family, was adjudged and declared alſo Baron Dacre, by Patent 13 Edward IV. with Place in Parliament next Fines, and for Diſtinction had the Adjunction of an old denominating Barony, being call'd. Baron Dacre (of Gilſland) and 21 Hen. VIII. Baron Dacre of Dacre and Greyſtock, and 1 Edward VI. Baron Dacre of Dacre and Gilſland. Fines had the Appellative Baron Dacre, and and 31 Hen. VIII. Baron Dacre del South (Gilsland being in the North) which Title descended to his Heir general Lennard, farther diversified and called Baron Dacre of Herstmonceux, enjoying the Barony of Dacre, of the South by Descent and Writ of Summons to the Parliament, 12 Jac. I. as his Mother, (the Sister and Heir of the last Fines Baron Dacre) was adjudged and declared Baroness before him 2 Jac. I. whence the Earl of Sussex.

And this reminds me of what I spoke on before of altering of Titles, which is not practised in Barons by Descent; the exact Beginning whereof cannot certainly be determined, depending on the Summoning. However, as the Baronies, by Writ of Summons, became established and hereditary, so was the Title fixt and hereditary; because since the Decay of Tenure Baronies, these Titles by Summons are perpetual Ratifications of their Descent, to ascertain their Precedency and other Prerogatives.

Yet at the first Institution or Initiation of the Writs of Summons sub Edward I. when the Barons were only only personal or gentilicial: The Writs being directed Personis & non Locis. The Titles were in a precarious and variable Position, with Submission for so expressing my self, if the Barons had any Titles of Barons as wholly Dignities in the modern Acceptation, for it was then their Revenues and Possessions, stipulated with Conditions, gave the Name, or made them Barons, as retained now by the Bishops.

To be plain, after the 49 Hen. III. Did a Baron heretofore by Tenure, receive a Summons to Parliament? Was his Barony continued, which might be judged a feudal Honour, as did Mowbray Baron of Axholme; or proleptically speaking, Baron Axholme of Axholme; Mortimer Baron Wigmore of Wigmore; Ross Baron Hamlake of Hamlake; Beke Baron Eresby of Eresby. The Names of the Possessors, and not Possessions, being taken as the Titles; So Baron Mowbray de Mowbray is one of the Titles of his Grace the Duke of Norfolk by Descent, and Summons, and not Baron Mowbray de Axholm: Thus Audley Baron Heleigh of Heleigh-Castle, temp. Hen. III. This Baron being summoned sub Ed- ward. I. en Baronie, or per Baroniam, and the Writ directed Johanni or Thomæ de Audley; the Title became thenceforward Baron Audley, which Touchet Earl of Caſtelhaven now enjoys, being Baron Audley of Heleigh by Deſcent and Summons originally in his Anceſtors.

Thus Roſs Baron Hamlake, or de Hamlake by Tenure, firſt in Eſpec and after in Roſs by Marriage, and both before the Innovation of any Writ of Summons, Roſs the Poſſeſſor being ſummoned, in regard of his Barony, Johanni or Thomæ de Roſs, the Barony was perſonal, viz. Roſs, and not local; the Revenues, viz. Hamlake, and the Adjunct of Hamlake, as Johanni or Thomæ de Roſs (de Hamlake) was but uſed to ſhew the Foundation of the Barony, and continued for Diſtinction ſake to other Baronies of the ſame Sirname, Roſs of Werk, Roſs of Ingmanthorp, and Roſs of Kendal; of which, 1. Roſs (of Werk) was of like kind; for Werk was as a Title temp. Hen. III. but another Roſs, (a younger Houſe of that of Hamlake) the Poſſeſſor, being ſummoned, temp. Edw. I. the Title was Roſs and Werk, only the ad-adjunct diſtinguiſhing, as uſed by Grey, temp. Jac. I. 2. Roſs (of Ingmanthorp) was a Baron de Novo by Summons, Roſs the Title, and Ingmanthorp the Adjunct, no Part thereof otherwiſe. 3. Roſs (of Kendal) Kendal was the Barony and Title of Iwa, Lineal Anceſtor to the Lancaſters, temp. Williel. I. but Roſs not being ever ſummoned, who enjoy'd the Poſſeſſion after Henry III's Time, that Barony was but ſuperficial and not ſolid, and the Title lay Dormant till 30 Henry VIII. who revived it again as an Adjunct in Parr, deſcended from Roſs of Kendal, by a Female Heir of that Family, creating him Baron Parr (of Kendal). To return, the Heir of Roſs (of Hamlake) being married to Maners. That Barony of Roſs is now enjoy'd by the Duke of Rutland, by Deſcent and Summons originally in his Anceſtors.

Laſtly, Beke Baron Eresby, another ancient Baron by Tenure, having been ſummoned temp. Edw. I. His Title was Baron Beke, and not Eresby. And Willoughby being Heir general of Beke, in right of his Wife, and poſſeſſing Eresby, was ſummoned

Baron Willoughby of Eresby, Eresby no Part of the Title, assumed only as a corroborating Proof of the Cause of the Barony, and used discriminatively in futuro. This Barony, or Title afterwards by Descent and Summons in Welles, and jointly with Welles, in Hastings; is now by the same Vicissitude derived on the Marquis of Lindsey, whose lineal Ancestor Bartie, by Virtue of Descent, was summoned Baron Willoughby (of Eresby) temp. Eliz.

3. The Third Sort of Barons were by Patent, which began 11 Rich. II. The first being Beauchamp of Holt, who was made Baron Beauchamp of Kiderminster: Which Kiderminster, the Adjunct was anciently a Barony by Tenure, and possess'd by Biset, temp. Hen. I.

But of these last Barons interspersedly in the former Head. It may be observed here however, that many of the old Baronies by Tenure, have since been Adjuncts to new Baronies by Patent; Also Titles of Baronies by Patent. Beaudesert, Weston, Shelford, Wemme, Bolsover, Basing, Ickworth, Okehampton, Gilsland, Hampsted, Bransfath, Hornby, Kyme, Okeham, Groby, Tor-

Torbay, Braibroc, Greyſtock, Wallham, Cockermouth, &c. The old Tenure Baronies of the ſeveral Houſes of Montfort, Cormeiles, Hanſelyn with Bardolf his Heir general; Pantulf, Peverel, Port, Blont, Rivers Earl of Devon, Vaux, Marſhal Earl of Pembroke, Bulmer, and aftewards of Nevill, Baron of Raby, Montbegon, Kyme, Ferrers, Quincy, Briwer, Braibroc; the Houſe of Greyſtock, Clare and Meſchines, afterwards in Luey, and Lucy alias Multon, are the Adjuncts of the Barons Pagit, Butler, Stanhope, Jeffreys, Cavendiſh, Paulet, Harvey, Mohun, Dacre afterwards of Howard, Earl of Carlile, Craven, Carr, Conyers, Tailbois, Cromwell, Grey, Herbert, Griffin, Dacre, Denny and Percy.

Among the old Baronies by Tenure renewed by Patent, ſo as they are or were modern Titles; you have Sudley, Kimbolton, Kenſington, Pontefract, Bothal, Hedington, Egremont, Rougemont, and Lexington; The old Baronies of Sudley, Mandeville, Vere, Lucy, Bertram, Baſſet, Meſchines and others, Liſle and Lexington; and now, or of later Age, of Botiler, Montagu, Rich, Fitz-Roy, Cavendiſh, Beauclair, Percy, Grey, and Sutton.

Other

Baron Willoughby of Eresby, Eresby no Part of the Title, assumed only as a corroborating Proof of the Cause of the Barony, and used discriminatively in futuro. This Barony, or Title afterwards by Descent and Summons in Welles, and jointly with Welles, in Hastings; is now by the same Vicissitude derived on the Marquis of Lindsey, whose lineal Ancestor Bertie, by Virtue of Descent, was summoned Baron Willoughby (of Eresby) temp. Eliz.

3. The Third Sort of Barons were by Patent, which began 11 Rich. II. The first being Beauchamp of Holt, who was made Baron Beauchamp of Kiderminster: Which Kiderminster, the Adjunct was anciently a Barony by Tenure, and possess'd by Biset, temp. Hen. I.

But of these last Barons interspersedly in the former Head. It may be observed here however, that many of the old Baronies by Tenure, have since been Adjuncts to new Baronies by Patent; Also Titles of Baronies by Patent. Beaudesert, Weston, Shelford, Wemme, Bolsover, Basing, Ickworth, Okehampton, Gilsland, Hempsted, Braunstath, Hornby, Kyme, Okeham, Groby, Tor-

Furbay, Braibroc, Greyſtock, William, Cockermouth, &c. The old Tenure Baronies of the ſeveral Houſes of Montfort, Corneiles, Haſtlyn with Baldolf his Heir general; Pantulf, Peverel, Port, Blont, Rivers Earl of Devon, Fulux, Marſhal Earl of Pembroke, Bulmer, and afterwards of Nevill, Baron of Raby, Montbegon, Lyme, Ferrers, Quincy, Briwer, Braibroc; the Houſe of Greyſtock, Clare and Meſchines, afterwards in Lucy, and Lucy alias Multon, are the Adjuncts of the Barons Pagit, Butler, Stanhope, Jeffreys, Cavendiſh, Paulet, Harvey, Mohun, Dacre afterwards of Howard, Earl of Carliſle, Craven, Carr, Conyers, Talbois, Cromwell, Grey, Herbert, Griffin, Dacre, Denny and Percy.

Among the old Baronies by Tenure renewed by Patent, ſo as they are or were modern Titles, you have Sudley, Kimbolton, Kenſington, Pontefract, Bothal, Hodington, Egremont, Rougemont, and Lexington; The old Baronies of Sudley, Mandeville, Vere, Lucy, Bertram, Baſſet, Meſchines and others, Liſle and Lexington; and now, of later Age, of Botiler, Montagu, Rich, Fitz-Roy, Cavendiſh, Beauclair, Percy, Grey, and Saxton.

Other

Other Lords of Barons there are; such as are the Sons and Heirs apparent of Vicounts and Earls; but this is only a piece of Courteſie, and meer Faſhion, and allowed in Heraldry upon Tiptoft's Rule, (Earl of Worceſter, and Earl Marſhal ſub Hen. VI.) is that the eldeſt Son of every One of a created Degree, is of the next Degree under him; which may be applied to Dukes, Marquiſſes, and the reſt: But in legal Proceedings it is not ſo, nor have they, by being Heirs apparent, any Privilege of the Nobiles Majores; ſo Henry Earl of Surry, Son to the Duke of Norfolk, was attainted of Treaſon by a Common Jury, and not by Barons.

It may happen as frequently the Heir apparent may be ſummoned to Parliament in his Father's Life Time, then is he a true Baron, and takes Precedency according to the Barony in his Father, whoſe Title he uſes without any Reaſon to the contrary. But of ſuch, no Notice is taken here, (unleſs in Bullen de Rochford, temp. Hen. VIII.) Becauſe their Title and Place is as their Fathers Barony, and with that Precedency. Indeed if the Heir be ſummoned by a new Title, as Manners Baron Manners of Haddon, 31 Car. II. and Howard Baron Mowbray 17 Car. II. and the firſt in that Family that ever had that Title by Summons; or, if the Heir has a foreign Title peculiar in himſelf, as Oſborn Vicount Dunblain in Scotland, Son and Heir to the Duke of Leeds. To notifie theſe I held neceſſary.

Heir

What elſe concern Barons in all its Species, Dukes, Marquiſſes, Earls, Vicounts, and Barons ſimply ſuch, I refer to the Learned Selden and others, to avoid Tautologies, and leſt I make my Porch too big, as the Citizens of Myndus did their Gates for their ſmall City, who were advis'd to ſhut them, that it ran not out; I ſhall come to the Method.

And this requires not much more than to explain what is ſignified by the Symbols and Signatures, which are Six, viz. = ‖ § * ✢ [a] reſpecting the paſt; And Six, viz. R ♃ ♄, ☿ ☉ ♀ reſpecting the future; And Two, viz. † [1] of a middle Nature, which are placed in theſe Caſes.

= Where

‖ Where the Family enobled has been the Name of a Perſon, or ſome lineal Anceſtor of the ſame Family, who had a Barony by Tenure, ante Edw. I. So Byron Baron Byron of Rochdale, and Noell Baron Noell of Ridlington and of Tichfield, have the Cypher; For there was Burun or Byron his Anceſtor, Baron Horſley of Horſley, temp. Will. I. and Noell Baron Ellenhall of Ellenhall, ante Hen. III. a Lordſhip now, or late, by Deſcent of Inheritance, in the Poſſeſſion of the ancient Family of Harcourt, which I have ſeen intitled Barons of Ellenhall: Thus the Butlers, Butler Baron Butler of Lanthony, and thoſe of Weſton, becauſe their Anceſtor Walter held a Barony, temp. Hen. II.

‖ Where the Title enobling has been the Name of a Perſon who had a Barony by Tenure, ante Edw. I. Thus Leke Baron Deincourt of Sutton, and Widvill Baron Rivers; For Deincourt was Baron Blankney of Blankney, temp. Will. I. and one Rivers Baron Angre of Angre in Eſſex, temp. Rich. I. beſides the Rivers Earl of Devonſhire.

Some-

Sometimes it happens to be a collateral Anceſtor; as Bromflet was Baron Veſci de Veſci, whoſe Baronies were Malton and Alnwick, temp. Will. I. Bruges Baron Chandos, from Chandos Baron Snodhull of Snodhull, temp. Will. I. Although there was a Chandos, a more immediate Anceſtor, who was a Baron by Writ: And ſometimes it has been in a direct Line; as Scrope Baron Scrope of Maſham; and Finch Baron Fitzherbert of Eaſtwell; Scrope being deſcended from Scrope Baron Bolton of Bolton, temp. Hen. II. whence till of late Years, thoſe Barons Scrope of Bolton; and Finch from the Houſe of Fitzherbert Baron of Blanlaweny, temp. Hen. I. but called Finch from their Mannor of Finches in Kent.

§ Where the Adjunct to a Barony was it ſelf a Title by Tenure, before Edward. I. as Parr Baron Parr of Kendal; Harvey Baron Harvey of Ickworth; Griffin Baron Griffin of Braybrook; and Harley Baron Harley of Wigmore; which Adjuncts of Kendal, Ickworth, Braybrook, and Wigmore, were as the denominating Titles of Lancaſter, Blunt, Mortimer, all temp. Will.

Will. I. and of Braybrook temp. Ric. I.

* Where the Adjunct to a Barony was a Title by Tenure, before Edw. I. but converted into a familicial or perſonal Title by Summons, and poſſeſſed by another by Deſcent, as Heleigh in Audley; Eresby in Beke; Dunmore in Fitzwater; Cnockyn in Strange; and Baſing in St. John; Which came by Deſcent to Touchet, thence called Baron Audley of Heleigh; Willoughby called Baron Willoughby of Eresby; Ratcliff Baron Fitzwater, and after him Mildmay, Stanley, Baron Strange of Cnockyn, and by Patent with regard anceſtral from St. John Baron St. John of Baſing to Paulet.

✣ Where the Title and Adjunct was, or is the ſame with a Barony by Tenure before Edw. I. the Adjunct either expreſſed or intimated, as Bergavenny, Berkley, Stafford, Dudley, Hoo, Rougemont, Egremont, Montagu, and Raby; For Bergavenny was the Barony of Baalun, and others before Hen. III. Berkley of Berkley, and Stafford, both temp. Will. I. Dudley of Fitz-auſculph auſculph; Paganel and Someri, all before Edw. I. Hoo of Bardolph, temp. Hen. II. Rougemont of Liſle, temp. Joh. Egremont of Meſchines, Lucy and Multon, all before Edw. I. Montacute, or Montaigu of Montacute, temp. Hen. II. and Raby of the Nevill-Houſe, temp. Will. I. altho' Raby, as ſome others, were converted into perſonal Titles; For Nevil, after the ſummoning, temp. Edw. I. being then Baron Nevill of Raby, he is not to be accepted as before, viz. Baron Raby of Raby; And notwithſtanding he was yet, and ſo called, Dominus de Raby, as Proprietor, or Lord of that Place. He was alſo Dominus Nevill de Raby, Baron Nevill de Raby; Whence I conjecture the after-Diſtinction of Baron and Lord; every Baron is a Lord, but every Lord not a Baron.

[a] After this Manner any of the Letters inclos'd; a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, denotes an Increment of Honours under the ſame Title, ſince Hen. III. according to the numbred Place in the Order of the Alphabet: Thus there were Nine Barons Howard, and variouſly diſtinguiſhed by their Adjuncts; namely, Howard Baron Howard de Howard, whence the Duke of Norfolk; Howard Baron Howard of Effingham, of Bindon, of Walden, of Marnhill, of Eſtrig, of Charleton, of Caſtle-Riſing, and of Cheſterford; not but that there were other Barons who were Howards by Family, but not Title: Howard Baron Staffora; Howard Baron Mowbray; and Howard Baron Dacre of Gilſland. Seven Barons Beauchamp; namely, Beauchamp of Kidermin ſter, Beauchamp of Powick, Seymour Baron Beauchamp of Hatch, and Monk Baron Beauchamp de Beauchamp. And Kidermin ſter being mark'd [a] argues him the fourth Kind of the Baron Beauchamps; the other Three being prior Titles, Beauchamp of Elmley, Earl of Warwick; Beauchamp Brother to an Earl of Warwick, ſummon'd 24 Edw. III. and Beauchamp Baron of Bletſho, by Summons 38 Edw. III. all before the 11 Rich. II. and ſince King Henry III. and therefore not cognizable here: There were Two other Beauchamps Baron of Bergaveny and St. Amand, but Bergavenny and St. Amand being their Titles, they are not counted. Five or

Six

Six Montagues, 4 Herberts, 2 Hydes, 2 Capells, 3 Dudleys, &c.

[1] The Figures denote a Gemination of such a Barony since Hen. III. jointly in the same Name, and Adjunct, was it enjoyed by another of the same Family, de Novo, or in another, by Descent or by Patent: For Example: Two Barons Dacre of Gilsland, One in Dacre temp. Edw. IV. the other in Howard temp. Car. II. Three Greys of Ruthyn; the First in Grey, the Second in Longueville, the Third in Yelverton: And Longueville having the [2] indicates the first in Grey, to be before 11 Rich. II. not being in the Catalogue; Two Willoughbies of Brook; Two Lumleys, Cholmleys, Cravens, Conways, Butlers of Weston, and Herberts of Cherburgh, &c.

R Intimates a Barony restored or recogniz'd in the same Name and Family with Precedency; as Darcy.

B A Barony restor'd in another Name and Family which is by Descent, with Precedency; as Mildmay.

♄ A Barony poſſeſſed by another of the ſame Name and Family, upon Extinction of the former, but without Precedency; as Brook Baron Cobham, Herbert Baron Herbert of Cherburgh, &c

☿ A Barony poſſeſſed by another of the ſame Name and Family, by Virtue of Entail; as Craven Baron Craven; Wentworth Baron Raby, &c.

☉ A Barony poſſeſſed by another of different Name and Family, by Virtue of Entail; as Noel Baron Hicks of Ilmington; Duras Baron Sonds of Throughley, &c.

☽ A Barony poſſeſſed by another of different Name and Family, either by Pretext of Blood and Affinity, or otherwiſe, but ſo as reputed new Barons. Howard Baron Dacres of Gilſland; Sackvill Baron Cranfield, having Precedency, according to their Creations.

† Where a Title is, as the Law expreſſes it, in Briga, dubious, or under At-Attainder; as Knollys Baron Knollys, &c. Fitz-James Baron Bosworth, &c. and Griffin Baron Griffin.

As to their Precedency, it is according to the Seniority of their Creations, in their ſeveral Series; ſave that a Cauſe was took in Parliament, 31 Hen. VIII. for placing thoſe above the reſt, and next the Blood Royal, which were entruſted with the greateſt Offices of State and Court; viz. Next above all Dukes, The Lord High-Chancellour, or Lord Keeper, Lord High Treaſurer, Lord Preſident of the Council, and Lord Privy Seal. And next Marquiſſes, and before all Earls, Lord High Conſtable, Lord High Chamberlain, Earl Marſhal, Lord High Admiral, Lord Marſhal, together with the Lord Steward of the Houſhold, and Lord Chamberlain of the ſame: Which Manner of Precedency, being it relates to the Perſons, and not to their Titles, varieth and changeth with the Times, according as they are in Truſt and Favour with their Sovereign.

If

If at one and the same Time, any superiour Title was conferred upon a Baron, Vicount, Earl, or Marquis, then is the copulative Particle & prefix'd; and if in his own Person, with any intervenient Space of Time, then is Idem adjoin'd; but if in their Issue or distant Progeny, then is the greater Dignity enclosed in a Crotchet [ ].

Where a new Honour has been in a Cadet, or collateral Branch of any Noble House, and that Line arrived afterwards to the Dignities of the Elder, it is coalesced; that Title being then conjoin'd with the other, and following the same, according to its Date and Original; as in Seymour Baron Seymour of Troubridge, who came afterwards to enjoy all the Titles of the elder House, the Duke of Somerset; So Herbert Baron Herbert of Shurland and Earl of Montgomery, inherited the Earldom of Pembroke, Barony Herbert of Cardiff, &c.

If the Heir apparent in a direct Line received a Barony, and he afterwards succeeded to the Honours of his Ancestors; as did Sackvill Baron Cranfield; Russel Baron Houland: One to the Earldom of Dorset, and Barony rony of Barkhamp: the other to the Dukedom of Bedford, and to the Baronies of Russel of Tavistock, or Cheneys, and Russel of Thornhaugh; by this, I mean intwined or involved.

The Extinctions of a Title in a Family are mark'd Ext.

To collect their Titles. Since the Baron is the Basis and Foundation; Enter that Head, and having found the Name of the Family, you have the fundamental Title of their Honours, against it, the Nature and Date. And then, if any, the next Superiour, with which enter that Head, and you have the next Superiour, till you behold him in his Zenith, if he had any foreign Titles before, the Chief of them, is next his paternal Name. Thus Churchill is written Baron Churchill of Aymouth in Scotland, being an Honour conferred before he received any English Dignity: The Words coalesced and intwined discover the Titles that accrue after.

This holds in all, except in Sons of the Blood, who are born Barons; and therefore, if their Title of Baron is not specified to them, I have avoided to insert their Names and greater

Titles in that inferiour Class, with the Expression of [illegible]

Among the many Questions, the last Drone and precipitate Rhetoric may raise, I conceive, the most poignant; Why have I mentioned some extraneous Dignities, as Duke of Tornham, Earl of Belgrave, &c. For Answer, consider the Patent of the Marquiss of Dublin: The Form of Words was "Confirmavit ipsum Marchionem de Ardiffis Titulo Nomine & Honore, "gladii cincturam & circulum suum, "Capitis impositionem, [illegible] "as Chartam tradidit. Ex [illegible] "lari inter Pares Parliamenti in [illegible] "caltiori evidenter, inter Duces & Comites sedere mandavit. And why not the other exotick Honours acquire Place accordingly? if not, the Parcity makes it pardonable. English Barons they were allowed to be as much as Vaudeville Earl of Angus in Scotland, who was summoned nevertheless by that Title to our Parliaments. His Barony in England was Prudhoe-Castle by Tenure, whence proceeded his Right of Place in our great Assemblies: But had his Creation or Investiture of Earl been from any English King, he had not elapſed my Notice as ſuch; And as a Baron by Tenure, and before Rich. II. he is not within my Verge.

I hope I am not culpable for the Norman Titles of Earl of Carboile, Thorigny, and Granville, given to the Houſe of Bath, temp. Car. II. Earl of Tankerville, to Grey of Werk, and Vicount Barfleur to the Houſe of Ruſſel, temp. Will. III. The like Reaſon, the like Law. We have the Titles of Duke of Ormond and Duke Schombergh naturaliz'd, Vicount Longueville, &c. But I have not Place or Time here for Diſquiſitions, therefore ſhall conclude with my hearty Anhelations, that Heralds (heretofore Sacroſanct) and their Science, might be better regarded, and the Nobility themſelves leſs credulous and prone to encourage pretending Interlopers, whether Mechanicks or others:

Yours in all Humility, &c.

Titles in that inferiour Class, with the Expression of including Barony.

Among the many Objections the lazy Drone and precipitate Envious may raise, I conceive, the most poignant; Why have I mentioned some extraneous Dignities, as Duke of Touraigne, Earl of Bologne, &c. For Answer, consider the Patent of the Marquiss of Dublin: The Form of Words was, "Confirmavit ipsum Marchionem de prædictis Titulo Nomine & Honore, per gladii cincturam, & circuli aurei suo Capiti impositionem maturius investuit, ac Chartam tradidit. Eum vultu hilari inter Pares Parliamenti in gradu celtiori, videlicet, inter Duces & Comites sedere mandavit. And why may not the other exotick Honours acquire Place accordingly? if not, the Paucity makes it pardonable. English Barons they were allowed to be as much as Umfrevile Earl of Angos in Scotland, who was summoned nevertheless by that Title to our Parliaments. His Barony in England was Prudhou-Castle by Tenure, whence proceeded his Right of Place in our great Assemblies: But had his Creation or Investiture of Earl been from any Engliſh King, he had not elapſed my Notice as ſuch: And as a Baron by Tenure, and before Rich. II. he is not within my Verge.

I hope I am not culpable for the Norman Titles of Earl of Carboile, Thorigny, and Granville, given to the Houſe of Bath, temp. Car. II. Earl of Tankerville, to Grey of Werk, and Vicount Barfleur to the Houſe of Ruſſel, temp. Will. III. The like Reaſon, the like Law.
